Introduction

Peasedown St John was administered by Bathavon Rural District Council from 1933. In 1952 it was proposed that Wellow and Peasedown be formed into separate civil parishes (Somerset Guardian 5-Sep-1952 p4) and a public inquiry was held to consider revising the parish boundaries of Camerton, Dunkerton and Wellow with new civil parishes of Wellow and Peasedown being created. The matter was debated by Bathavon RDC in November 1952. The proposal for a new parish of Peasedown, made up of parts of Camerton, Dunkerton and Wellow, was approved by Somerset County Council in January 1953 (Somerset Guardian 30 Jan 1953 p8), this to come into effect on 1 Apr 1954. There were arguments about the parish boundaries with some adjustments made as some hamlets decided to be part of Wellow rather than Peasedown.

£7,000 LOAN
TO BE RAISED
New Cemetery Plans
Approved

Mr. W. J. Warburton presided at a meeting of Peasedown Parish Council, when Mr. A. Williams, the architect and surveyor for the proposed new cemetery, attended to present his report and final plans for the layout, with estimated cost.

After a - discussion on the detailed costs, it was agreed that they be approved, together with plans as presented and that the clerk be instructed to make application to Somerset County Council for their consent to the raising of a loan of £7,000 repayable over a period of 40 years, subject to approval for the loan to be raised being obtained from a parish meeting, which had been arranged for that purpose.

At the parish meeting, held to obtain the necessary consent for the raising of the loan. Mr. R. J. Mulvey presided, and after a discussion of all details in connection with the proposed cemetery, it was carried unanimously that consent be given for the raising of the loan, as proposed in the recommendation from the Parish Council.

Peasedown Cemetery
Is Consecrated

“You have just taken part. With me. In an immensely ancient ceremony.” Said the Bishop of Taunton. The Rt. Rev. M. A. Hodson. Addressing the congregation at Peasedown’s cemetery on Thursday last week.

“This ground has now for ever been set apart for this use in this parish.” Said the Bishop at the conclusion of a consecration service.

“It looks a very worthy and fine piece of ground. That the parish has managed to get for its burial ground.

“The children here will remember this day when it was consecrated and one day tell their own children about taking part in this service. To you and to them I would say, keep this place lovely for the future, try to make it worthy of the use to which it is put."

There was quite a large congregation at the cemetery for the service, during which they moved in procession round that part of the burial ground which was to be consecrated.

The procession was led by the Rev. V. Whiteman (vicar of Clandown) as Bishop's chaplain, followed by the two churchwardens. Mr. W. E. J. Lippiatt. And Mr. E. C. Purdy. The Bishop, the Parish Church choir, the Rev. C. Hollinshead (vicar of Peasedown), the Rev. L. W. Fussell (vicar of Wellow), and the two Free Church ministers. The Rev. H. L. Collings (Methodist) and the Rev. D. J Macrow (Baptist).

At the end of the service Mr. C. W. Harris, Diocesan Registrar, read aloud the deed of consecration.

In the evening there was a second ceremony at the cemetery when the gates were officially opened by the vice-chairman of Peasedown Parish Council, Mr. W. G. Warburton.

Mr. Warburton was introduced by the chairman. Mr. R. J. Holvey. Who at the afternoon ceremony had handed to the Bishop the petition from the Council asking for the consecration.

The provision of a cemetery was one of the first tasks facing Peasedown Parish Council when it was formed from neighbouring parishes three years ago and the Parish Council and its Burial Ground Management Committee have spent a great deal of time and had to do a great deal of work to get the project completed.

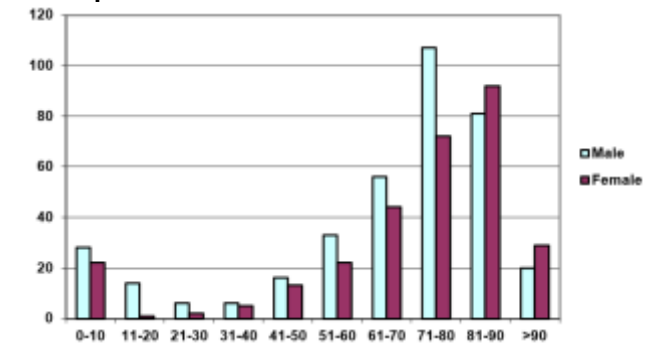

Mr. Holvey and Mr. Warburton both paid tribute to the clerk, Mr. A. Stock, for the vast amount of work he had done in connection with the cemetery.

Mr. Warburton said the chairman had not under-estimated the tremendous amount of work and responsibility the Clerk had carried.

He also felt that they had to give a large measure of thanks to the architect, Mr. W. A. Williams, of Bath, and his son, Mr. J. O. Williams, and to Messrs. S. W. Foster, of Radstock, who carried out the work, and all the other people who had been concerned.

Occupants

The age profile has 7.5% aged under 11 and 60% aged over 70. When transcribing the inscriptions there seemed to be a significant number of men who didn't reach retirement age.

As would be expected for a parish within the North Somerset Coalfield over 80% of the occupations are either miner or labourer.

Over 95% of those buried have their names on a memorial, reflecting the general increase found in many cemeteries after WWII as this became more affordable. In the area, historically the level is about 20%, the cost of the funeral and the plot making the provision of a memorial beyond the means of most families.

Burial Registers

The burial register is maintained by Peasedown St John Parish Council. Cut-down entries from the burial register have been put at its website. This includes burial date and location but in Nov 2022 was limited to two sections of the cemetery.

At a meeting of the Cemetery Committee on 24-Jan-2023 the committee kindly agreed to provide transcripts of the burial register entries for inclusion in the Bath Burial Index. The meeting's minutes have 'The Bath Burial Index information, as raised under the public session, was considered, along with the reports provided by their representative.

The general feeling was the Council would like to link to the Bath Burial Index, however, it was resolved that the Council's own records are completed in accordance with the original plans first, and once actioned, the Bath Burial Index representative is granted access to the records to complete the report they have started. Once the Parish Council works are completed, the records, including a link to the Bath Burial Index can be published and a press release put together to make residents aware and help promote the information.'

In the absence of these burial register entries the Bath Burial Index is currently limited to the information found from a survey of the memorials.

Layout

The cemetery is divided into a series of sections. In common with other municipal cemeteries, the historic separation of Anglicans from non-Anglicans persists with some areas deemed to be 'consecrated' and others 'unconsecrated'.

		Plots	Memorials
A	Unconsecrated	135	116
B	Unconsecrated	51	45
C	Children - unconsecrated	43	17
D	Consecrated	105	83
E	Consecrated	135
F	Consecrated
G
H
J	Unconsecrated

Sections F and J are recent extensions, again one deemed to be 'consecrated; and the other 'unconsecrated'.

Section G is the 'Garden of Remembrance' for the scattering and also the burial of ashes. There are some plaques. Section H has only a small number of memorials.
